Immigration - 1937

West Palm Beach, Fla. Post
June 1, 1937

THREE NEGROES HELD BY IMMIGRATION MEN

Officials Report First Case Of Smuggling Of Aliens In Months

Three negroes were being held for deportation Monday by immigration authorities who said they were part of the cargo in the first alien smuggling reported here in months.

Inspector I. L. Smith, of the immigration service, said the negroes, arrested early Monday by Palm Beach town police, were landed at the beach by a small auxiliary vessel during the night.

He said that a Greek was also in the group which landed, but has not been found, and the inspector asked all citizens to be on the lookout for him. He was described as being about 30, weighing about 200 pounds, with black hair and eyes, wearing a grey suit and black shoes.

The immigration officer said he had information as to the type of boat which brought the aliens offshore.